Overview

The Chinese economy slowed down with knock-on impact on the rest of the world. Developed economies remained subdued. Britain's exit may further impact outlook for the developed economies. India overtook China to become the fastest growing major economy in the World.

MosChip has been consolidating its position, withstanding the challenges faced by the Industry. MosChip is the first publicly traded fabless model semiconductor Company from India with specific focus on cutting edge products and IOT/E products and Services. MosChip leverages its engineering skills to develop custom products, Embedded Software development, IP development and design/development/implementation services. MosChip is currently focusing on design and development services division. It has services agreements and contracts with several companies in India and abroad.

Industry

Semi-conductor:

2015-16 witnessed some slowdown in the Global Semi-conductor Industry and experienced the pressure of innovating more advanced technology. The Industry has also witnessed higher R&D cost, war for talent and increased need for consolidation. The Indian semiconductor industry offers high growth potential areas as the industries which source semiconductors as inputs are themselves witnessing high demand

Semiconductor applications or end markets can be divided into six categories:

1. Communications is the largest end-market – growth in this area is driven currently by demand for smart phones and wireless networks and, in the not too distant future, by the Internet of Things (IoT) –connected devices in the home or workplace.
2. Computers– growth in this area is being driven by demand for tablets.
3. Consumer Electronics– leading growth in this category are digital TVs including game consoles, audio for home the atre systems, blue tooth enabled speakers, the sudden proliferation of fitness wearables that track just about every part of your day and the lot.
4. Automotive Electronics– advanced electronics now control just about every aspect of the automobile, and the installation of "infotainment" systems is growing especially fast. Driverless automobiles with vision imaging and IoT are already in the design stages
5. Industrial/Medical– smart grids, smart cities, factory automation and robotics, industrial IoT and health IT are major forces at work in the category.
6. Aerospace and Defense procured products.

IOT:

Now with the concept of Internet of Things (IoT) picking up momentum, the next generation of interconnected devices would further increase the demand for intelligent computing, thereby creating sustainable demand for semiconductors.

India has a very fast growing electronics system design manufacturing (ESDM) industry. India also has a strong design base with more than 120 units. According to the Department of Electronics and Information Technology (DeitY), nearly 2,000 chips are being designed every year in India and more than 20,000 engineers are working on various aspects of chip design and verification. The government has a strong focus in developing the ESDM ecosystem in India. Several subsidies and other incentives are on offer for setting up electronics manufacturing units in India.

The Indian electronics and hardware industry is expected to reach US$ 112-130 billion by 2018 as electronics and hardware manufacturers are looking to increase their manufacturing base in India to cater to the domestic market as well as the Middle East, Africa and SAARC countries.

Over the past several years, many original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) and integrated device manufacturers (IDMs) have invested in the Indian semiconductor space.

The Government of India expects investment proposals in electronics manufacturing to increase two times in the two years to 2017-18, giving a push to the government's 'Make in India' initiative. Of the 54 proposals received, the Centre has approved 30 requests entailing investments of Rs 6,000 crore (US$ 889.44 million), while 24 are in an advanced stage.

Considering the continued growth momentum, the Indian semiconductor design market is expected to grow at a CAGR of 29.4 percent to touch US$ 52.6 billion in 2020.

Government Initiatives

The electronic system design and manufacturing (ESDM) industry will benefit from the government's "Make in India" campaign and is projected to see investment proposals worth Rs 10,000 crores (US$ 1.61 billion) over the next two years, according to the India Electronics and Semiconductor Association (IESA), an industry body.

The Government of Telangana has launched T-Hub in Hyderabad, which acts as a prototyping centre for electronics, semiconductors and hardware start-ups on the lines of California State's Innovation Hub or iHub.

The Government of India has taken several steps to boost domestic production of electronic items and reduce dependence on imports. Some of these steps include imposition of basic customs duty on certain items falling outside the purview of IT Agreement, exemption from SAD on inputs/components for PC manufacturing, imposition of education cess on imported electronic products for parity, etc.

The government, in consultation with semiconductor industry, has increased focus on the ESDM sector in last few years. Some of the initiatives outlined in the National Electronics policy and the National Telecom policy are already in the process of implementation, such as Preferential Market Access (PMS), Electronics Manufacturing Clusters (EMC) and Modified Special Incentive Package Scheme (M-SIPS). With the implementation of fabrication capabilities in India, the country could achieve a degree of self-sufficiency in electronics.

India has the third largest pool of scientists and technicians in the world. Skilled manpower is available in abundance in Semiconductor Design and Embedded Software. India also has strong design and R&D capabilities in auto electronics and industrial electronics.

Outlook

The coming year will see a slew of initiatives to achieve a healthy organic and inorganic growth. The strategy will ensure topline growth as well as improvement in bottom line and Cash position to deliver superior shareholder value.

The following sections highlight management's assessment of business potential.

Design Services business

MosChip leverages its engineering skills to develop custom products, IP development and design/development services. After the sale of I/O products of the company, it is focusing itself on SOC products, which have a very promising future and the design services business. Mixed signal design capabilities will add to the design strength of engineering thereby increasing the competitive edge.

MosChip leverages this strength in services business. It is successfully making inroads in design services business and foresees a very bright future ahead. The company has transformed into value added services and has made steady inroads into very large Tier-1 customers, including domestic customers.

MosChip is also investing heavily in Automation, IOT/E, Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Deep Learning Products and Services. Our focus is to be a leading company in overall VLSI design and development, Embedded Software Development and IOT/E areas.

Geographical Expansion:

MosChip has plans in place to strengthen the Milpitas, CA, USA operations and Revenue growth by extending necessary Investment and support in the form of building Sales team. MosChip also has plans to expand into other geographies i.e. Europe, UK and APAC regions by opening Offices in UK and Singapore.

Increasing focus on Defence projects

We believe that under the present Government, the defence manufacturing sector has already started to get a policy action push. Hence, we believe that the Indian defence sector is likely to offer enormous opportunities for growth.

Given the equipment requirements for the modernization of India's armed forces, along with the thrust from GoI and present policy of 'Make in India', we believe India is about to start one of the world's largest procurement cycles. Citi Research estimated the opportunity of the Indian defence manufacturing sector to be worth US$245bn over the next 10 years.

We believe the opportunity will be more back-ended given the long procurement cycles in defence (despite timeline-crunching by the new government). However, not only could orders be large but they also could be recurring, making demand less cyclical. While the larger private companies would target the OEM level, their involvement could nurture tier 1 & tier 2 suppliers, creating a virtuous cycle for India's defence manufacturing sector.

Offset Business:

Since 2005, the Indian Ministry of Defence (MoD) has been operating a formal offset policy as part of the Defence Procurement Procedure (DPP), the procurement manual used for capital acquisition for the Indian Armed Forces. The prime objective of the offset policy, which has undergone several rounds of revisions, is to leverage India's huge arms import for strengthening the indigenous arms industry. To achieve the objective, the policy allows foreign vendors to discharge their offset obligations through a combination of avenues that include two key provisions: FDI in Indian Companies; and purchase of certain products/services from qualified Indian enterprises. Till October 2014, MoD signed 25 offset contracts valued $4.97 billion.

MosChip intends to go after this to offer contracts in the area of Computer Software and Hardware imports and establish itself as a domestic supplier to the Indian Defense Industry

IOT/E Products and Services:

The coming year will witness initiatives in Service & Solution offerings in IOT/E space i.e. Smart Metering, Street Lighting, Commercial Lighting, Township & Home Automation and M2M space i.e. Heavy Equipment, School Bus and Commercial Vehicles etc.

Mergers & Acquisitions

MosChip is actively looking for inorganic growth by involving in Mergers and Acquisitions in Semiconductor, IOT/E, Automation and AI areas. These deals help MosChip to rapidly increase its business scale and business scope.

Intense competition in the semiconductor industry is driving the M&A significantly

The semiconductor industry is characterized by intense competition. Acquisition of a rival firm helps the company to increase market share by increasing customer base.

Internet of Things playing an important role in shaping the M&A deals in the semiconductor industry

The Internet of Things represents a huge growth opportunity for the growth of semiconductor companies. Billions of devices are expected to be connected to the internet by 2020. Semiconductor companies can provide solutions in areas such as wearable electronics, industrial automation, automated lighting, automated heating, and so on. The semiconductor IoT market is expected to grow significantly by 2020 with high growth opportunities for semiconductor companies in segments such as automotive and smart homes.

Risks and concerns

The following important factors could affect our future results of operations.

Semiconductor Services under pressure

There is pricing pressure in the value added services space within the Semiconductor Industry as many MNC's are looking at lowering their R&D budgets and have expanded their operations within India and other countries with cheaper labour force. The billing rates are under pressure, and due to this the margins are affected adversely.

Future success depends upon the continued services of key personnel, many of whom would be difficult to replace

The Company's future success depends upon the continued services of its executive officers, key hardware and software engineers, and sales, marketing and support personnel, many of whom would be difficult to replace. The loss of one or more of these employees could seriously harm the Company's business. In addition, because of the highly technical nature of its business, the loss of key engineering personnel could delay product introductions and significantly impair the Company's ability to successfully create future products.

Others may bring infringement actions against MosChip Group that could be time-consuming and expensive to defend.

The Group may become subject to claims involving patents and other property rights. Intellectual property claims would subject the Group to significant liability claims for damages and invalidate its proprietary rights. In addition, intellectual property claims may be brought against customers that incorporate its products in the design of their own products. These claims, regardless of their success or merit and regardless of whether the Group is named as a defendant in a lawsuit, would likely be time consuming and expensive to resolve and would divert the time and attention of the Management and technical personnel.

The cyclical nature of the semiconductor industry may lead to significant variances in the demand for MosChip Group's products and could harm its operations.

The cyclical nature of the semiconductor industry could lead to significant variances in demand and thereby impacting the margins. The Group may experience periodic fluctuations in its future financial results because of changes in industry-wide conditions.

The Company's operating and consolidated results may be adversely affected by variations of the Indian rupee against foreign currencies and the US dollar

The Company has international exposure and is subject to currency fluctuations. The Company also consolidates its results with wholly owned subsidiaries in USA. Any adverse fluctuations in the currencies in which the Company's exports/imports or any adverse fluctuations against the US dollar would affect the Company's results of operations and the consolidated financial position.

Internal control systems

The Company has formulated effective internal control systems and implemented the same strictly to ensure that the assets and interests of the Company are safeguarded and to determine the accuracy and reliability of accounting data.

The Company has an internal audit system and its functions are to ensure that systems are designed and implemented with adequate internal controls. The Company's control methodology is commensurate with the size of operations, the transactions that are executed, and the assets that must be safeguarded and deployed in accordance with the Company's policies.

An Audit Committee, headed by a non-executive independent Director, periodically reviews the audit information/observation and all significant issues are brought to the attention of the committee.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Annexure - A to the Auditors' Report

Report on the Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting in terms of Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act").

We have audited the Internal Financial Controls over financial reporting of MosChip Semiconductor Technology Limited ('the Company') as of March 31, 2016 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's Management is responsible for establishing and maintaining Internal Financial Controls based on "the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India". These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial controls over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that

- (i) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company;
- (ii) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and
- (iii) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2016, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of Internal Financial Control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Annexure - B to the Auditors' Report

Report on the Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting in terms of Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act").

We have audited the Internal Financial Controls over financial reporting of Moschip Semiconductor Technology Limited ("the Company") as of March 31, 2016 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's Management is responsible for establishing and maintaining Internal Financial Controls based on "the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India". These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial controls over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that

- (i) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company;
- (ii) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and
- (iii) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2016, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of Internal Financial Control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.
